

EXECUTIVE ORDER

CIVIL EMERGENCY

NO PERSON SHALL ENTER THE OCEAN

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, pursuant to Section 8-9 of the Myrtle Beach City Code, that as of 12:00 PM, Sunday, September 9, 2018, that a State of Emergency Exists in the City of Myrtle Beach.

The Governor has declared a State of Emergency due to the impending approach of Hurricane Florence.

The conditions of the ocean are dangerous, and no person should enter the water, thereby putting first responders in danger should rescue be needed. Violators are subject to arrest. Prevailing conditions may prevent rescue, and those who enter, do so assuming the risk of death or injury.

The City Manager of the City of Myrtle Beach hereby orders all citizens and visitors not to enter the ocean until this Order is rescinded.

This order to be in effect until modified by further Executive or Mayoral Order. This order is issued in the interest of public safety and welfare and is imminently necessary for the protection of life and property.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED!

DONE this 11th day of September, 2018.

John Pedersen

JOHN PEDERSEN, CITY MANAGER
CITY OF MYRTLE BEACH
SOUTH CAROLINA

7:00 PM 9/11/2018

DATE/TIME