Such policy or policies of insurance shall name the Landlord and the Tenant as insureds, as their respective interests may appear. The Tenant shall cause the general contractor at all times during the construction of the Project to maintain general liability insurance in an amount not less than that required to be maintained by the Tenant under Section 18.1 hereof, and the Tenant shall cause the general contractor to maintain worker's compensation insurance as required by law. Such reserve may be used by the escrow agent or trustee at the direction of the Landlord to satisfy the lien if action is taken to enforce the lien and such action is not stayed.

Such reserve will be returned to the Tenant if the lien is successfully contested. In the event the Tenant shall fail to pay any of the foregoing items required by this Section to be paid by the Tenant, the Landlord may (but shall be under no obligation to) pay the same, and any amounts so advanced therefor by the Landlord shall be payable by the Tenant on demand and shall accrue interest from the date of such advance to the date of payment of the rate of eighteen percentum (18%) per annum.

(iii) All monies previously disbursed have been used solely to pay for Costs of the Project, and the Tenant has written evidence to show such use;

(iv) All bills for labor, materials and fixtures used, or on hand and to be used, in the construction of the Project have been paid and no one is asserting a lien with respect thereto, except Permitted Encumbrances; and

(v) The amount of the disbursement requested therein has been or is to be used to pay Costs of the Project and that none of the items for which payment is requested has formed the basis for any payment previously made from the Construction Fund, and the Trustee shall be entitled to rely thereon and shall be held harmless by the Tenant for all liability in connection therewith.

(d) Upon approval thereof, the Construction Manager shall sign the Certificate and Requisition for Payment and submit it to the Trustee.

In making any such disbursements from the Construction Fund, the Trustee may rely on any such documents delivered to it pursuant to this Section.

Section 3.6. Tenant Required to Pay Acquisition and Construction Costs in Event Construction Fund Insufficient. In the event the monies in the Construction Fund available for payment of the Costs of the Project shall not be sufficient to pay the costs thereof in full, the Tenant agrees to complete the acquisition and construction of the Project and to pay all that portion of the Costs of the Project as may be in excess of the monies available therefor in the Construction Fund except to the extent that any deficiency therein is the result of Landlord's failure to make any payment pursuant to Section III G. of the Construction Contract. The Landlord does not make any warranty, either express or implied, that the monies which will be paid into the Construction Fund and which, under the provisions of this Lease, will be available for payment of the Costs of the Project, will be sufficient to pay all the costs which will be incurred in the acquisition and construction of the Project. Any amounts recovered by way of penalties or damages, whether liquidated or actual, refunds, adjustments or otherwise in connection with the foregoing prior to the Completion Date, less any unreimbursed legal expenses incurred to collect the same, shall be deposited in the Construction Fund, accompanied by written explanation to the Trustee as to the reason for such deposit, and, if recovered on or after the Completion Date, shall be applied as required by Section 5.03(c) of the Indenture.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 3.7(a) above, in the event any recovery described in such subsection 3.7(a) shall relate to any work, materials, equipment or other matters with respect to which the Tenant has provided funds pursuant to Section III G. of the Construction Contract, the amount of such recovery shall, to the extent available in the Construction Fund, be paid over to the Tenant on the Completion Date or after the Completion Date if thereafter received upon written direction of the Tenant and Landlord.

(c) The Tenant and Landlord covenant that they will cooperate in taking such actions and instituting such proceedings as shall be necessary to cause and require any manufacturers of equipment and any dealer from whom the Tenant is purchasing equipment to fulfill their warranties and contractual responsibilities diligently in accordance with the terms of any purchase and installation contracts, including, without limitation, the correction of any defective parts or workmanship, with all expenses incurred by the Tenant in connection with the performance of its obligations under this Section to be considered part of the Costs of the Project. The Landlord agrees that the Tenant may, from time to time, take such action as may be necessary or advisable, as may be determined by the Tenant, to insure the conformity of the equipment to the specifications therefor, with all costs and expenses incurred by the Tenant in connection therewith to be considered as part of the Costs of the Project.

(d) The parties agree that, prior to the Completion Date, primary responsibility for taking action under this Section 3.7 shall be Tenant's and, after the Completion Date, Landlord's.

If any such alteration or improvement not agreed to by Tenant increases consumption of electricity, gas, water, or other utilities, Landlord shall pay for any such increased costs.

Section 16.2. By Tenant. The Tenant may make alterations and improvements to the Premises after the Completion Date, subject to the prior written approval of the Landlord and a written agreement between the Landlord and Tenant as to allocation of the expense of such alterations and improvements between the parties and the manner in which the alterations and improvements shall be accomplished. In the absence of such approval and agreement, the Tenant shall make no alterations or improvements to the Premises. All such alterations and improvements shall become the sole property of the Landlord on the termination or expiration of this Lease. Any alterations or improvements made solely or in part at Landlord expense shall be the property of the Landlord.

Section 16.3. National Association Requirements. The Tenant shall provide written notice to the Landlord of any alterations and improvements to the Ballpark required to meet new National Association single "A" standards adopted after the date of this Lease and applicable to teams playing at the same professional baseball classification level as the Tenant and in a ballpark of the same or greater age as the Ballpark. If the Landlord declines to make such alterations and improvements, then the Tenant shall apply to the National Association or Major Leagues, as applicable, using best efforts to obtain a waiver, exemption or variance from such new standards. The Tenant shall inform the Landlord, in writing, of the determination by the National Association or the Major Leagues on the waiver, exemption or variance application. If: (a) the waiver, exemption, or variance application is denied; (b) the Landlord thereafter again determines not to make such alterations and improvements; and (c) the continued use by the Tenant of the Ballpark, without such alterations and improvements, would result in loss of the Tenant's professional baseball franchise or player development contract; then the Tenant shall be entitled to terminate this Lease on six (6) months' prior written notice to the Landlord. After the Tenant provides such notice to the Landlord, the Landlord shall have no right to reinstate this Lease without the written approval of the Tenant, which approval shall be exercised in the sole discretion of the Tenant. If Landlord determines to make the alterations and improvements, Landlord may increase Tenant's rent for the remainder of the Lease in an amount necessary to amortize (at prime rate or Landlord's financing costs, whichever is less) one-half (1/2) of the cost of said improvements and alterations over the remaining Lease term. For the purposes of this Paragraph only, "cost" shall mean only Landlord's actual costs in designing and constructing any necessary improvements.

FINANCIAL REPORTS AND RECORDS

Section 17.1. Annual Statements. As soon as practicable at the end of each calendar year occurring during the Term after the Completion Date and, in any event, by March 1 of each year, the Tenant shall furnish to the Landlord an income statement showing such information as may be reasonably necessary to accurately indicate the computation of "Adjusted Gross Revenues" of the Tenant's operations with respect to the Premises and this Lease. This income statement shall include the amount of each component of Adjusted Gross Revenues and Rent. All such income statements shall be in a form upon which Landlord and Tenant agree and in reasonable detail. The Tenant shall furnish such other financial reports and documentation as may be reasonably required by the Landlord in connection with the computation of the Rent and other sums due from the Tenant under this Lease. All such reports and documentation shall be at the sole expense of the Tenant. Tenant also shall report the number of complimentary tickets Tenant provided throughout the season.

Section 17.2. Maintenance of Books and Records. The Tenant shall at all times keep and maintain at the Ballpark or some other place for safekeeping complete and accurate books and records of the operations of the Tenant and any licensee, concessionaire or other persons engaged by the Tenant with respect to the Premises from which the Landlord may determine the items to be shown or set forth on the statements or other financial information to be delivered to the Landlord pursuant to Section 17.1 or elsewhere in this Lease. The Tenant shall preserve these books and records for a period of at least three (3) years after the end of each applicable period of time.

Section 17.3. Supporting Documentation. The books and records described in Section 18.2 shall include income and sales tax returns and audit trails for complimentary tickets and shall show, among other things, all Adjusted Gross Revenues supported by documents of original entry such as sales slips, purchase invoices and tickets issued. With respect to ticket sales for Professional Baseball Games the Tenant shall either: (a) issue serially numbered tickets for each paid admission and keep accurate records of said serial numbers issued and of those unused; (b) record admission charges by means of a system which automatically issues a customer's receipt; or (c) utilize any other comparable method specifically approved by the Landlord in writing, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld. The Tenant shall make available to the Landlord copies of all ticket reconciliation statements and other ticket sales documentation produced by the Tenant and any ticket agent engaged by the Tenant. All sales and revenues from Concessions, shall be reported by means of some system that, in the view of the Landlord, reasonably and accurately reports sales. The Tenant shall retain sales tax returns for all Concessions and shall also retain event inventory sheets for all T-Shirts and other merchandise sales sold at any mobile concessionaire units which cannot reasonably have cash registers.

Section 17.4. Landlord Inspection and Audit. The Landlord has the right from time to time during regular business hours, upon twenty-four (24) hours' written notice, to inspect and audit any and all of the Tenant's books and records and other papers and files required to be provided or maintained by the Tenant pursuant to Sections 17.1, 17.2 or 17.3. The Tenant shall produce the same upon request of the Landlord. The Tenant shall include, in each license, concession or other agreement with any person doing business with the Tenant with respect to any component of Adjusted Gross Revenues, or Rent, a provision giving the Landlord the same rights of inspection and audit as the Landlord has with the Tenant. If the Landlord uncovers any information that it reasonably believes questions the accuracy of Tenant's reports, Landlord may request that an audit by an independent certified public accountant be conducted. If there is an understatement of any payment of Rent or other sums due from the Tenant, then the Tenant shall pay the underpayment to the Landlord within ten (10) days after the Tenant has received notice of such underpayment from the Landlord, with interest from the original due date at the Prime Rate plus five (5) percent per year. If the understatement is in an amount equal to or greater than the cost of the audit or is the result of an intentional discrepancy, then the Tenant shall also pay to the Landlord the costs of the audit.

Section 17.5. Survival. The provisions of Article 17 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Lease.

ARTICLE 18

INSURANCE

Section 18.1. By Tenant. In addition to the requirements of Section 3.1 hereof, at all times during the Term, the Tenant shall, at Tenant's expense, procure and thereafter maintain the insurance specified in this Article with insurance companies acceptable to the Landlord and licensed to do business in the State of South Carolina. The terms, conditions and amount of all such insurance shall be subject to the prior review and approval of the Risk Manager. A copy of each such policy, together with a receipt and certificate of insurance indicating payment by the Tenant of the insurance premium on the policy, shall be promptly submitted to the Risk Manager. In the event of a loss which may be covered by any policy of insurance, the Tenant shall submit to the Risk Manager a copy of the proof of claim at the time the Tenant submits the claim to the insurance carrier. All such insurance shall contain an endorsement giving the Landlord not less than sixty (60) days' prior written notice of any cancellation or material alteration and, with the exception of workers' compensation insurance, shall include the Landlord as an additional insured. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(a) Workers' Compensation Insurance. The Tenant shall procure and maintain workers' compensation insurance providing statutory limits regardless of the number of employees.

(b) Liability Insurance. The Tenant shall procure and maintain comprehensive general liability insurance, including but not limited to the following coverage parts: premises/operations; products and completed operations; contractual; independent contractors; broad form property damage; liquor liability; host liquor liability; and personal injury, including coverage for false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, libel, slander, defamation and advertising. Such insurance shall contain limits approved from time to time by the Risk Manager but in no event less than a combined single limit of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) per person and Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) per occurrence for bodily injury and property damage liability, Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) per person for personal injury, and Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) per person for medical payments coverage. The Landlord shall be named as an additional insured. Primary, excess, and umbrella policies may be used to obtain these coverage limits. As to those comprehensive general liability insurance coverage parts for independent contractors and host liquor liability, the Tenant may cause its independent contractors to procure and maintain such coverage on behalf of the Tenant and the Landlord.

(c) Other Insurance. At the Landlord's request, the Tenant shall procure and maintain such other insurance that is or may become customary or available for protection against claims, liabilities and losses connected with the Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises.

Section 18.2. By Landlord. Except as otherwise provided by Section 18.3, the Landlord shall at all times during the Term, at Landlord expense, procure and thereafter maintain a policy or policies of fire and extended coverage insurance on the Ballpark, and other Landlord-owned insurable facilities located on the Premises and having replacement values in excess of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000). Such insurance shall be on an actual cash value basis, and with insurance companies licensed to do business in the State of South Carolina. A copy of each such policy, together with a receipt and certificate of insurance indicating payment by the Landlord of the insurance premium on the policy, shall be promptly submitted to the Tenant. All such insurance shall contain an endorsement giving the Tenant not less than sixty (60) days' prior written notice of any cancellation or material alteration. The Landlord shall not be required to insure: any contents of the Ballpark; furnishings, fixtures or equipment; or personal property of the Landlord or the Tenant.

Section 18.3. Landlord Risk Retention Program. In lieu of the insurance otherwise required pursuant to Section 18.2, the Landlord may utilize an alternative risk management, risk retention or self-insurance program for the Ballpark. Such program shall be bona fide and funded in a financially sound manner so as to constitute reasonable and appropriate risk management by the Landlord. Such program may be individually established by the Landlord or part of a mutual or collective program with other units of local government, other institutions or captive insurance companies. Should the Landlord determine to utilize any such program for the Ballpark, then on an annual basis during the period such program is being utilized, the Landlord shall provide to the Tenant documentation, reasonably satisfactory to the Tenant, of compliance by the Landlord with the provisions of this Section.

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 19.1. Obligation to Indemnify. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Tenant shall indemnify and save harmless the Landlord and the Landlord's officers, employees, agents and contractors (hereinafter "Indemnitees") against and from all liabilities, suits, obligations, fines, damages, penalties, losses, claims, costs, charges and expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and disbursements (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Charges"), which may be imposed upon or asserted against or reasonably incurred by the Indemnitees arising as a result of or in connection with the acts or omissions of the Tenant or the Tenant's officers, employees, players, agents, assigns, subleasees, contractors, concessionaires, sub-concessionaires, licensees and guests (other than members of the public attending, as a spectator, Professional Baseball Games or Other Events staged by the Tenant) (hereinafter the "Indemnitors"); provided, however, that this obligation shall not extend to Charges which may be imposed upon or asserted against or reasonably incurred by the Indemnitees arising as a result of or in connection with the acts or omissions of the Indemnitees. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, but subject to the limitations on the Tenant's obligations as provided in the foregoing, this indemnity shall include, but is not limited to:

- (a) Operation. Any act or omission of any Indemnitors pertaining to any use, non-use, possession, occupation, alteration, repair, condition, operation, maintenance or management of the Premises;
- (b) Injury. Any accident, injury (including death) or damage to any person or property occurring in, on or about the Premises as a result of the acts or omissions of any Indemnitors;
- (c) Private Property Damage. Any claims or liabilities for loss or theft of, or damage to, any property located on the Premises of any of the following as a result of the acts or omissions of any Indemnitors: Indemnitors, employees and players of other teams playing Professional Baseball Games or Other Events sponsored by the Tenant, umpires, and members of the public or any other person attending Professional Baseball Games or Other Events sponsored by the Tenant;
- (d) Liens. Any lien or claim which may be alleged to have arisen against or on the Premises of the leasehold interest of the Tenant as a result of the act or omissions of any Indemnitors;
- (e) Sublease. Any and all liabilities, claims, and causes of action arising under the provisions of any occupancy, sublease, assignments, service contracts or other agreements of any Indemnitors affecting or relating to the Premises;
- (f) Indemnitor Default. Any failure on the part of any Indemnitors to keep, observe and perform any of the provisions of any agreements by the Indemnitors affecting the Premises; and
- (g) Rental. Any failure on the part of the Indemnitors to pay rent or to keep, observe, perform or comply with any provision in this Lease, and the exercise by the Landlord of any remedy provided in this Lease with respect to such failure.

Section 19.2. Tenant's Obligation to Defend. If any claim, action or proceeding is made or brought against any Indemnitee by reason of any event as to which the Tenant is required to indemnify any Indemnitee pursuant to this Article 19, then, upon demand by such Indemnitee, the Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall resist or defend such claim, action or proceeding in such Indemnitee's name, if necessary, by the attorneys for the Tenant's insurance carrier (if such claim, action or proceeding is covered by insurance), and otherwise by such attorneys as the Landlord shall approve. The Landlord agrees that in the event the Landlord is named as a party to the action, the Landlord will reasonably cooperate with the Tenant in the conduct of the proceedings.

Section 19.3. Survival. The provisions of this Article shall survive the termination or expiration of this Lease.

Section 19.4. Notice to Tenant. Landlord shall provide detailed written notice to Tenant immediately whenever Landlord learns of any possible charges which could require Tenant to indemnify Landlord under the provisions of Article 19 including any litigation which could involve Landlord regarding the Ballpark. Failure to give notice shall not relieve Tenant of any obligation under this Article 19.

Section 19.5. Sovereign Immunity. Nothing shall be construed in this Lease as waiving governmental sovereign immunity.

CASUALTY LOSS; CONDEMNATION

Section 20.1. Casualty Loss. If the Ballpark shall be partially or totally damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty not due to the negligence of Tenant or the Tenant's officers, agents or representatives, the Landlord, at Landlord expense, shall repair the damage out of the proceeds of insurance under Section 18.2 or alternatively, if the Landlord has determined to utilize a risk management, risk retention or self-insurance program under Section 18.3 rather than obtain the insurance policy or policies under Section 18.2, the proceeds of the program under Section 18.3. The Landlord shall use such proceeds to restore the Ballpark so much as such proceeds allow to substantially the condition existing immediately prior to such fire or other casualty. In undertaking any such work of repair and restoration, the Landlord shall proceed promptly and diligently to completion, subject to reasonable delays beyond the Landlord's control.

Section 20.2. Rent Adjustment During Repair Period. During any period beginning with the occurrence of any damage or destruction by fire or other casualty which renders the Ballpark unfit or unusable for Tenant Home Games and ending upon completion of the work or repair and restoration:

- (a) The rent payable under this Lease shall temporarily abate;
- (b) The Tenant shall pay a reasonable rent for any part of the Premises which the Tenant elects to use during such period; and
- (c) The other obligations of the Landlord and the Tenant under this Lease shall be suspended to the extent appropriate in the light of the extent of the fire or casualty and the remaining part, if any, of the Premises being used by the Tenant.

Section 20.3. Condemnation. In the event that all or any material portion of the Ballpark is taken by the exercise of the right of eminent domain exercised by a governmental entity or pursuant to any other governmental order and such taking renders the Ballpark unfit or unusable for Tenant Home Games, then this Lease shall terminate and expire on the date of such taking. In such event, the Tenant shall pay rent for the period of time up until the date of taking; any obligation of the Tenant to pay rent for use of the Ballpark for the period of time commencing as of the date of taking shall cease. The Tenant shall have no right to any portion of any award granted with respect to such taking, except that the Tenant shall have the independent right to make a claim, to the extent such claim may be then allowed by applicable law, against the condemner for and retain any award based on the reasonable value of its leasehold interest in the Ballpark and of any improvements made to the Ballpark by the Tenant and for the expenses incidental to relocating from the Ballpark. For purposes of this Section, the "date of taking" means the date title to the Ballpark or the material portion taken is permanently vested in such governmental entity.

EVENTS OF DEFAULT

Section 21.1. By Tenant. Each of the following events shall constitute an Event of Default under this Lease:

(a) if the Tenant shall fail to pay any installment of Rent and such failure shall continue for ten (10) days after written notice from the Landlord to the Tenant, other than any portions of Rent subject to a good faith dispute between the Landlord and the Tenant during the pendency of such dispute;

(b) if the Tenant shall fail to make any other payment required to be paid by the Tenant under this Lease for a period of fifteen (15) days after written notice from the Landlord to the Tenant specifying such failure, other than any portions of such payment subject to a good faith dispute between the Landlord and the Tenant during the pendency of such dispute;

(c) if there is an understatement of Rent or other sums due from the Tenant to the Landlord due to an intentional discrepancy by the Tenant;

(d) if the Tenant shall fail to observe or perform one or more of the other provisions of this Lease or any representation of the Tenant set forth in this Lease, and such failure or misrepresentation shall continue for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice by the Landlord to the Tenant specifying such failure (unless such failure requires work to be performed, acts to be done, or conditions to be removed which cannot by their nature reasonably be performed, done or removed, as the case may be, within such thirty-day period, in which case the Tenant may have such additional period of time as may be necessary to effectuate such performance by diligently prosecuting the same to completion, but in any event not longer than 12 months);

(e) if the Tenant shall admit, in writing, that it is unable to pay its debts as such become due or shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors;

(f) if the Tenant shall file a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or shall be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, or shall file any petition or answer seeking any reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under the present or any future federal bankruptcy act or any other present or future applicable federal, state or other statute or law, or shall seek or consent to or acquiesce in the appointment of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of the Tenant or of all or any substantial part of its properties or of any interest of the Tenant in the Premises;

(g) If within ninety (90) days after the commencement of any proceeding against the Tenant seeking any reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under the present or any future federal bankruptcy act or any other present or future applicable federal, state or other statute or law, such proceeding shall not have been dismissed, or if, within ninety (90) days after the appointment of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of the Tenant or of all or any substantial part of its properties or of any interest of the Tenant in the Premises, such appointment shall not have been vacated or stayed on appeal or otherwise, or if, within thirty (30) days after the expiration of any such stay, such appointment shall not have been vacated;

(h) if the Tenant shall abandon the Premises and such abandonment shall continue for a period of fifteen (15) days;

(i) if this Lease or the estate of the Tenant hereunder shall be assigned, leased, transferred, or encumbered without an approval of the Landlord required by this Lease or without compliance with the applicable provisions of this Lease; or

(j) if a levy under execution or attachment shall be made against the Tenant or its property (that would have an impact in its ability to perform under the Lease) and such execution or attachment shall not be vacated or removed by court order, bonding or otherwise within a period of ninety (90) days.

Section 21.2. By Landlord. It shall constitute an Event of Default under this Lease if the Landlord shall fail to observe or perform one or more of the provisions of this Lease, and such failure shall continue for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice by the Tenant to the Landlord specifying such failure (unless such failure requires work to be performed, acts to be done, or conditions to be removed which cannot by their nature reasonably be performed, done or removed, as the case may be, within such thirty-day period, in which case the Landlord may have such additional period of time as may be necessary to effectuate such performance by diligently prosecuting the same to completion, but in any event not longer than 12 months).

Section 21.3. Guarantor's Right Following An Event of Default by Tenant. If an Event of Default by the Tenant shall occur and the Landlord gives written notice to the Tenant terminating the Lease as provided in Section 21.4, the Landlord shall provide the Guarantor with a copy of such written notice. The Guarantor shall be entitled to perform the obligations of the Tenant giving rise to the Event of Default. The Guarantor shall have a period of thirty (30) days after such notice within which to complete such performance (unless the same requires work to be performed, acts to be done, or conditions to be removed which cannot by their nature reasonably be performed, done or removed, as the case may be, within such twenty day period, in which case the Guarantor may have such additional period of time as may be necessary to effectuate such performance by diligently prosecuting the same to completion, but in any event not longer than 12 months). During such period of time, the Landlord shall have all rights and remedies against the Tenant and Guarantor pursuant to this Lease. If Guarantor comes in and cures such performance, the Landlord, the Tenant and Guarantor agree that the Guarantor shall be entitled, in the discretion of the Guarantor, to assume all rights and obligations of the Tenant pursuant to this Lease.

Section 21.4. Termination of Lease in Event of Default by Tenant. If an Event of Default by the Tenant shall occur, the Landlord, at any time thereafter, at its option, may give written notice to the Tenant stating that this Lease shall expire and terminate on the date specified in such notice, which date shall be not less than twenty (20) days after the giving of such notice with respect to any Event of Default. Thereafter, subject to the rights of the Guarantor as provided in Section 21.3, this Lease and all rights of the Tenant under this Lease shall expire and terminate on the date specified in the notice as if that date were the date definitely fixed in this Lease for the expiration of the Term, and the Tenant shall immediately quit and surrender the Premises. Following such surrender of the Premises, the Tenant shall remain liable to the Landlord for damages to the Landlord resulting from the Event of Default.

Section 21.5. Re-entry by Landlord on Termination. If this Lease shall be terminated as provided in this Article 21 or by summary proceedings, or otherwise, the Landlord may re-enter and repossess the Premises pursuant to applicable law.

Section 21.6. No Reinstatement of Term. No receipt of monies by the Landlord from the Tenant after termination of this Lease, or after the giving of any notice of termination of this Lease (unless such receipt is before the termination date set forth in the notice and cures the Event of Default which was the basis for the notice), shall reinstate, continue or extend the Term or affect any notice previously given to the Tenant or operate as a waiver of the right of the Landlord to recover possession of the Premises.

Section 21.7. Alternate Remedies of the Landlord. Unless the remedies provided in Section 15.4 are being pursued, in the event of any Event of Default or threatened breach of any of the provisions of this Lease, the Landlord shall be entitled to enjoin such Event of Default or threatened breach and shall have the right to invoke any rights and remedies allowed at law or in equity (including specific performance) or by statute or otherwise as though re-entry, summary proceedings, and other remedies were not provided for in this Lease.

Section 21.8. Alternate Remedies of Tenant. Unless the remedies provided in Section 15.4 are being pursued, in the event of any Event of Default or threatened breach of any of the provisions of this Lease, the Tenant shall be entitled to enjoin such Event of Default or threatened breach and shall have the right to invoke any rights and remedies allowed at law or in equity (including specific performance) or by statute or otherwise.

Section 21.9. Rights and Remedies Are Cumulative. Unless the remedies provided in Section 15.4 are being pursued, and except to the extent provided in Section 21.11 below, each right and remedy of the Landlord and the Tenant provided for in this Lease shall be cumulative and not exclusive and shall be in addition to every other right or remedy provided for in this Lease or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity (including specific performance) or by statute or otherwise. Unless the remedies provided in Section 15.3 are being pursued, and except to the extent provided in Section 21.11 below, the exercise or beginning of the exercise by the Landlord or the Tenant of any one or more of the rights or remedies provided for in this Lease or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by the Landlord or the Tenant of any or all other rights or remedies provided for in this Lease or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise.

Section 21.10. Landlord Protection for Tenant Bankruptcy. If an order for relief is entered or if a stay of proceeding or other act becomes effective in favor of the Tenant or the Tenant's interest in this Lease in any proceeding which is commenced by or against the Tenant under the present or any future federal Bankruptcy Code or any other present or future applicable federal, state or other statute or law, the Landlord shall be entitled to invoke any and all rights and remedies available to it under such bankruptcy code, statute, law or this Lease, including, without limitation, such rights and remedies as may be necessary to adequately assure the complete and continuous future performance of the Tenant's obligations under this Lease.

Section 21.11. Liquidated Damages in the Event Ballpark Is Abandoned. In place of Landlord's right to sue for monetary damages, because of the difficulty of measuring economic losses as a result of a breach by Tenant abandoning the Ballpark, the parties agree that in such event, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Landlord's sole remedy for such breach during the Term of the Lease, the sum of 1 Million Dollars. For purposes of this paragraph, Tenant shall be deemed to have abandoned the Ballpark if Tenant fails to play an entire minor league baseball season at the Ballpark, with the definition of season to be defined and set by the applicable league of which Tenant is a member. To the extent that Tenant's season, as set by the applicable league of which Tenant is a member, is scheduled to be less than seventy (70) games, Tenant shall not be deemed to have abandoned the Ballpark, but the computation of Rent pursuant to Article 4.1 hereunder shall be as follows: "A sum equal to four percent (4%) of Adjusted Gross Revenues in excess of the product of the number of regular season home games Tenant is scheduled to play in the Ballpark times Forty-Six Thousand Four Hundred Twenty-Nine Dollars ($46,429.00)."

TRANSFER OF TENANT'S INTEREST

Section 22.1. Tenant Right of Assignment. The Tenant shall be entitled to assign this Lease to any third party approved by the National Association as an owner assignee of a single "A" professional baseball team with a franchise and league affiliation in the National Association at a level equal to or greater than that held by the Tenant at the time of such assignment, so long as such owner: (a) agrees to assume all of the rights and obligations of the Tenant under this Lease, and (b) demonstrates to the reasonable satisfaction of the Landlord that the owner is financially capable of assuming all of the rights and obligations of this Lease, and is not a Prohibited Person. Tenant shall provide written notice to Landlord of its intent to assign this Lease, and within forty-five (45) calendar days thereafter Landlord must accept or reject Tenant's request. Unless Landlord reasonably objects to the assignment within forty-five (45) calendar days (time is of the essence), consent to assignment shall be deemed given and Tenant may assign this agreement. Other than as set forth in this Section, the Tenant shall not be entitled to assign this Lease without the express written consent of the Landlord, which may be withheld for any reason. No assignment shall in any way relieve or excuse the Tenant from any of the Tenant's obligations under this Lease prior to the effective date of the assignment. Following the assignment, the Tenant shall thereafter be released of any liability arising under this Lease after the date of such assignment, unless such liability is based on events, activities, circumstances, acts or omissions occurring prior to the date of such assignment.

Section 22.2. Prohibited Transfers. Except as explicitly authorized in Sections 10.4 and 22.1, the Tenant shall not permit, suffer or enter into an assignment, sublease, transfer, sale, conveyance, syndication or other disposition of any kind whatsoever (hereinafter collectively referred to as a "Transfer") of any of the Tenant's interest in this Lease or the leasehold estate established in this Lease, without the prior written approval of the Landlord. Such approval of the Landlord to a Transfer shall be in the sole discretion of the Landlord. All provisions of this Lease shall be binding upon the person to whom or to which an approved Transfer is made. Except as explicitly provided in Section 22.1, no Transfer shall in any way relieve or excuse the Tenant from any of the Tenant's duties, obligations, responsibilities, covenants and requirements under this Lease.

Section 22.3. Draft of Tenant Territory. Except as expressly authorized in Section 22.1, the Tenant shall use best efforts in good faith to oppose within, and only to the extent allowed by, the rules and regulations of the National Association, any attempt by any person holding a franchise in the National Association to draft the Tenant's territory.

GUARANTIES

Section 23.1. Guaranties. The Guarantor guarantees Tenants' performance of all obligations and payments of all amounts under this Lease.

Section 23.2. Transfer of Guaranties. In the event Tenant assigns its interest pursuant to Article 22 hereunder, or in the event that the Shareholder(s) of Tenant desire to sell all or substantially all of its stock or Tenant desires to sell all or substantially all of its assets to a third party, Guarantor shall be able to assign its guaranties under this Lease if Guarantor demonstrates to the reasonable satisfaction of the Landlord that the assignee is financially capable of assuming all of the Guarantor's obligations hereunder. Guarantor shall provide written notice to Landlord of its intent to assign its guaranties hereunder, and within forty-five (45) calendar days thereafter Landlord must accept or reject Tenant's request to assign said guaranties. Unless Landlord reasonably objects to the assignment within forty-five (45) calendar days (time is of the essence), consent to assignment shall be deemed given and Guarantor may assign this Guaranty.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 24.1. Nondiscrimination. The Tenant shall not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, age, religion, handicapped status or national origin with respect to use and occupancy of the Premises.

Section 24.2. Compliance with Applicable Law. In connection with the occupancy and use of the Premises, the Tenant shall, at Tenant expense, comply with all present and future laws, ordinances, codes, orders and regulations of any lawful authority having jurisdiction over the Premises. The Tenant shall not use or occupy, nor permit or suffer the Premises to be used or occupied: (i) for any unauthorized, unlawful, illegal, disreputable, dangerous, noxious or hazardous business, use or purpose; (ii) in such manner as to constitute a nuisance of any kind (public or private); (iii) in violation of any licenses or permits pertaining to the Premises or activities and events on the Premises; (iv) in a manner which causes or results in any waste on the Premises; (v) for any purpose or in any way in violation of the certificates of occupancy or of any laws, ordinances, orders or regulations of any lawful authority having jurisdiction over the Premises; or (vi) in a manner which may make void or voidable any insurance then in force on the Premises. Upon the discovery of any such unauthorized, unlawful, illegal, disreputable, dangerous, noxious, hazardous or other improper use, the Tenant shall immediately take all necessary steps, legal and equitable, to compel the discontinuance of such use.

Section 24.3. Cooperative Efforts. This Lease shall be liberally construed in order to promote a harmonious relationship between the parties with regard to the construction, occupancy and use of the Ballpark. The Tenant accepts the relationship of trust and confidence established between the Tenant and the Landlord by this Lease. The Tenant covenants with the Landlord to furnish its best skill and judgment and to fully and effectively cooperate with the Landlord to accomplish the purposes and objectives of this Lease. If a problem arises that this Lease does not directly or indirectly address, the Tenant and the Landlord agree to work with one another to determine a mutually satisfactory solution. The Landlord and the Tenant agree to meet from time to time during the Term upon written request of either party to review the provisions of this Lease.

Section 24.4. Amendment. No alteration, amendment, change or addition to this Lease shall be binding on either party unless reduced to writing and signed by each party.

Section 24.5. Waiver. No failure by the Landlord or the Tenant to insist upon the strict performance of any provision of this Lease or to exercise any right or remedy upon a breach of such provision, and no acceptance of full or partial rental payment by the Landlord during the continuance of any such breach, shall constitute a waiver of any such breach or of such provision. No provision of this Lease to be performed or complied with by the Tenant or the city, and no breach of such provision, shall be waived, altered or modified except by a written instrument executed by the Landlord or the Tenant, as applicable. The Landlord and the Tenant agree to substitute such provision of this Lease or the application thereof determined to be invalid or unenforceable, such other provision as most closely approximates, in a lawful manner, such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision.
