MBFD vs. MBPD “Shop with a Hero” Selfie Contest
36th Annual Dickens Christmas Show
Thursday through Sunday, November 9-12
Myrtle Beach Convention Center, 2101 North Oak Street

Attend the 36th Annual Dickens Christmas Show, Tuesday through Sunday, November 9-12, and help local children by participating in the "Shop with a Hero" Selfie Contest! Just take a “selfie” with a Victorian-dressed fireman or Victorian-dressed policeman while you’re at the Dickens Show. Then, post the photo on the Myrtle Beach Fire Department’s Facebook page (www.facebook.com/MBFireRescue) or the Myrtle Beach Police Department’s Facebook page (www.facebook.com/myrtlebeachpolice). If you post your selfie on both Facebook pages, you’ll have two chances to win! One winner will be selected for the grand prize. In addition, the department (Police or Fire) with the most selfie posts will be declared the winner, receiving a trophy and a check ($1.00 per post; up to $2,500.00) to help fund the Shop with a Hero program.
Dickens Christmas Show hours are...
9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Thursday, November 9
9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Friday, November 10
9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Saturday, November 11
12:00 to 6:00 p.m., Sunday, November 12

So, what is the "Shop with a Hero" program? Each December, the Myrtle Beach police and fire personnel serve as Santa’s Helpers, granting children in need a day of holiday shopping for themselves and loved ones. The departments raise enough money to provide each child with at least $200 to spend on clothing, gifts and toys for themselves and their family members. The annual excursion is as much fun for the Police and Fire Department elves as it is for the youngsters. For more information about the Shop with a Hero program, call 843-918-1800. For more about the Dickens Show, call 843-448-9483 or see www.dickenschristmasshow.com/index.

America’s White Table
November 2017
Chapin Memorial Library, 400 14th Avenue North

During November, the Veterans Awareness Series (VAS) and Chapin Memorial Library proudly present the “America’s White Table” display as a tribute to our veterans. Please join us in this tribute by visiting and learning more about the display on the first floor of the library. The white table cloth symbolizes a soldier’s pure heart when called upon to serve his or her country. The lemon slice and salt represents a lost soldier’s bitter fate and the many tears of loved ones. An empty chair signifies the soldier's payment of the ultimate price for our freedom. To represent sorrow of captivity, a black napkin and an upside down glass are added to the display. A white candle represents peace. Finally, a red rose in a vase with a red ribbon around it signifies the hope that all of our missing soldiers will return someday. For more information, call 843-918-1295.

“Grand Strand Collects” Exhibit
Continues through December 14
F.G. Burroughs-S.B. Chapin Art Museum, 3100 South Ocean Boulevard

The F.G. Burroughs-S.B. Chapin Art Museum presents “Grand Strand Collects,” an exhibition of art borrowed from private collections along the Grand Strand, from both Horry and Georgetown Counties. Many of the collectors are patrons of the Art Museum and the works of art are displayed with accompanying labels that tell the story of how the art was acquired by the private collector and its personal significance. The exhibition features both two and three dimensional art and various types of media. Art museum gallery hours are 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday, and 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is free, but donations are welcomed. The art museum is located at 3100 South Ocean Boulevard. For more information, call 843-238-2510.

Jocelyn Châteauvert: “It Bloomed at Night” Exhibit
Continues through December 14
F.G. Burroughs-S.B. Chapin Art Museum, 3100 South Ocean Boulevard

In commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the South Carolina Arts Commission (SCAC), F.G. Burroughs-S.B. Chapin Art Museum hosts Jocelyn Châteauvert’s It Bloomed at Night, an exhibit of installations, through December 14. Châteauvert is a SCAC’s artist and transforms one of the galleries from its original state into a wonderland exhibit filled with beauty, light and fantasy. The exhibit's purpose is to inspire hope, creativity and abstract thinking. Art museum gallery hours are 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday, and 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is free, but donations are welcomed. The art museum is located at 3100 South Ocean Boulevard. For more information, call 843-238-2510.
