Feast Your Eyes: Celebrating the Food of the South
Continues through September 17
F.G. Burroughs-S.B. Chapin Art Museum, 3100 South Ocean Boulevard
“Feast Your Eyes,” Franklin G. Burroughs-Simeon B. Chapin Art Museum’s summer exhibit, celebrates the food of the South! The Feast Your Eyes exhibit explores the South’s culinary icons as cultural, political and artistic expressions. These objects invite viewers to explore the confluence of three distinct culinary cultures (Native American, African and European) which converged over time to form our unique cuisine. The exhibition features an expansive variety of two and three-dimensional media: paintings in oil and watercolor; works in pastel; printmaking; photography; sculptures in ceramics, metal, wood and mixed media; textile and fiber arts; and functional art (i.e. handcrafted dining furniture). Participating lending institutions include Columbia Museum of Art (Columbia, SC), the Gibbes Museum (Charleston, SC), Morris Museum of Art (Augusta, GA), the Red Piano Gallery (Hilton Head, SC) and the South Carolina State Museum (Columbia, SC). Art museum gallery hours are 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday, and 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is free, but donations are welcomed. The art museum is located at 3100 South Ocean Boulevard. For more information, call 843-238-2510.

Douglas Balentine’s “Beyond the Horizon” Exhibition Continues through September 10
F.G. Burroughs-S.B. Chapin Art Museum, 3100 South Ocean Boulevard

The F.G. Burroughs-S.B. Chapin Art Museum’s next featured artist is Charleston native Douglas Balentine, whose “Beyond the Horizon” exhibition is now open! Balentine resides in Charleston and has been drawing and painting as long as he can remember. As a nine-year-old living in Paris, France, Balentine was inspired by Parisian life. He went on to study art at Parsons School of Design in New York City and at the Santa Reparata International School of Art in Florence, Italy. In the 1990s, Balentine moved back to Charleston and began to explore the natural, historical beauty of the area. His works of art use classical principles and have recently been shown in Los Angeles, Miami, New York and Paris. Gallery hours are 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday, and 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is free, but donations are welcomed. The art museum is at 3100 South Ocean Boulevard. For more information, call 843-238-2510.
