

POET LAUREATE PROGRAM FOR THE CITY OF MYRTLE BEACH, SOUTH CAROLINA

Call to Community

The City of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina is seeking applications for the honorary position of Poet Laureate. This position is being created to support a greater appreciation of local people, places, history, and inclusion through the shared literary theme in reading and writing of poetry. The Poet Laureate is the poetic voice of our City, promoting literacy and literature among city residents of all ages. Duties will include participating in various public events and engaging with our schools, community centers, and libraries to encourage the reading and writing of poetry and other creative writing and literacy learning. The Poet Laureate will be appointed by Myrtle Beach City Council following the recommendation of the Cultural Resource Committee.

Guidelines

Poet Laureate Requirements/Qualifications

Poets from all walks of life, writing in any poetry form is welcome to apply. To be considered for the Poet Laureate position, applicants and nominees must meet the following requirements and qualifications:
